NoHo Market Coming Twice A Month

Noho Market LA was created as a safe and supportive space for artists and vintage resellers, small businesses, designers and anyone within our Valley community who would like to sell goods. It is our hope to build on our monthly market, expanding our space and event within NoHo Arts District. We have an amazing group of vendors to check out every market.

This upcoming market we'll have vendors that make custom upcycled clothes, art prints and originals, baked goods, fresh sourdough bread, nails, crotchet, handmade goods, hair tinsel, comics and more!!

The Noho Plaza is an outdoor venue. Our Event opens each Sunday at 12 noon and closes at 5:00 pm during afternoon markets, and 5:00 pm to 10:00 pm during night markets. Located at 5223 Lankershim Boulevard in North Hollywood, there is parking available very close to the plaza in the public parking lot off Magnolia Boulevard.

If you want to shop small and support local businesses or you just want a space to hang out and connect with like minded people, all our welcome.
